A BILL

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to prohibit certain tax-exempt organizations from providing funding for election administration.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “End Zuckerbucks
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. 501(c)(3) ORGANIZATIONS PROHIBITED FROM PRO-
7 VIDING DIRECT OR INDIRECT FUNDING FOR 8 ELECTION ADMINISTRATION.

9 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal 10 Revenue Code of 1986 is amended—

1           (1) by striking “and which does not partici-
2           pate” and inserting “which does not participate”, 3           and

4           (2) by striking the period at the end and insert-5           ing “and which does not provide direct funding to 6           any State or unit of local government for the pur-
7           pose of the administration of elections for public of-8           fice or any funding to any State or unit of local gov-
9           ernment in a case in which it is reasonable to expect
10          such funding will be used for the purpose of the ad-11          ministration of elections for public office (except 12          with respect to the donation of space to a State or 13          unit of local government to be used as a polling 14          place in an election for public office).”.

15          (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 16          this subsection shall apply to taxable years beginning after 17          December 31, 2024.
